- VIII. RATIONALE:

The year 2020 marked the beginning of a new decade, and as such, the world was optimistic about embracing new opportunities, possibilities, and transitions. But as we have been traversing the year, a global pandemic known as the COVID-19 struck unexpectedly, altering the way of life in all walks of life. This has posed a plethora of lingering challenges that changed our views on how we see things and gave us a new perspective of living. Now, 2022 holds the hope of recovering from the wounds of the pandemic and, at the same time, facing the challenges of the future through lessons learned.

As Urdaneta City University celebrates its 56th Founding Anniversary with the theme "Cultivating Change", the academic community will continue to make a difference by elevating its perspectives towards a brighter future. Hence, the project "56 nga Namnama" was conceptualized to give opportunities for the 56 youths to be given "namnama", a hope to hone their skills, knowledge, and aspirations in life. As the Urdaneta City University, an agent of social change and reform, it is our paramount concern to extend our extension programs and services, which play essential roles in the community.

IX. Objectives:

At the end of the program, each beneficiary will have the opportunities for self-enhancement and skills training, a hope to pursue their aspirations in life, cultivate changes for their futures:

- a) To provide opportunities for the 56 youths to be aware of the vision, mission, and objective of the UCU as an agent of cultivating change;
- b) For the beneficiaries to develop and hone their knowledge and skills through skills training, workshop, values formation, and cultivate change for their future;
- c) For the beneficiaries as well as their families avail of the various extension services of the Urdaneta City University colleges and departments;
